TROUBLES PROMPTLY CURED COMMISSION TO THE TEST

Power of Tribunal to Regulate Charges on Trial.

THE FIGHT MUST COME

All Realize that Understanding of Pow ers of Corporation Commission to Regulate Public Service Companies is Necessary.

The first test of the powers of the Cor-poration Commission to regulate demur-rage and car service charges by the rali-ways and of the constitutionality of the powers conferred on the commission by the Changel Assemble. ways and of the constitutionality of the powers conferred on the commission by the General Assembly is now about to be made. The attorneys of the Norfolk and Western, Bouthern, Chesapeake and Ohlo and Atlantic Coast Line Rallaways have been holding meetings in this city for the past two days, conferring as to the schedule of such demurrage and car service charges and the incompatibility with the interstate commerce act.

After a free exchange of views, it was determined to contest the legality of the commission's action, and in this connoction to make an appeal from the commission's ruling to the Supreme Court of Appeals of the State, and, if necessary, to carry the case to the Federal Supreme Court.

This collection is not a survive on the the

to carry the case to the Federal Supreme Court.
This action is not a surprise. On the other hand, the attorneys practically served notice at the recent hearing on these subjects that they would test the power of the commission, and the question whether or not its action was in violation of the interstate commerce rules. The contention of the railways, in brief, simple phraseology, is that the commission has no right to regulate the handling or delivery of freights shipped into this State from points outside the State. To assess demurrage charges, they contend, is a violation of the interstate commerce ANOTHER VIEW OF IT.

ANOTHER VIEW OF IT.
The issue expressed in another way is this: Were the lawyers who framed the corporation article of the Constitution right as to their interpretation of the powers of the commission, or are the attorneys for the several rallway lines right in their opposing view? This test has been recognized as inevitable, and the earlier it is made and decided the better, all parties agree. A brilliant array of counsel will be enlisted in the contest in the higher courts. Attorney-General William A. Anderson, Lawless & Jeffries, of Norfolk, and other well known attorneys will sustain the constitution-pilty of the statutes involved, and Messra J. Allen Watts, of Ruanoke; Alfred P. Thom, of Norfolk: Alexander Hamilton, of Petersburg, and Henry T. Wickham, of Hanower, respectively, of the Norfolk, the Southern, the Atlantic Coast Line, and the Chosapeake and Ohle Railway, are expected to make the fight against the constitutionality of the commission's action, and the statutory authority therefor. The decision of this case will either confirm the powers of the commission and insure the efficiency of that body, in regulating public service corporations, or it will strip the commission of power to that extent and limit its usefulness and its authority to remedy and redress grievances of the shippers and consignees of redghts.

Mr. Wickham, counsel for the Chesa-anness of the shippers and consignees of freights.

Mr. Wickham, counsel for the Chesapeake and Ohio, is a member of the State Stante, and it was he who practically drafted the statute agreed upon by the General Assembly. He proposed to amend the bill as passed by the House, and when his amendment was accepted by the Senate he withdrew opposition to the bill. The effect of his amendment was to give the consignee who had a claim for demurrage the option of accepting the amount of such demurrage charges or the amount of the actual damages sustained.

Miss Bledsoe Becomes Bride of Mr J. T. Beale.

J. T. Beale.

One of the prettiest marriages of the season took place yesterday, whon Mr. John Tyler Beale led to the alter Miss Julia Frances, eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Powhatan Bledsoc. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Wiley Hiedsoc, the bride's uncle, in the tastefully decorated parlors of the bride's home at "Wildwood," Hanover county. The only attendants were Mr. J. Edgar Bledsoc, best man, and little Miss Vuna Bledsoc, flower girl.

The bride, who is a brunette of the prettiest type and very popular, wore white silk with real lace trimmings, and carried a large bouquet of bridal ross. The groom is a popular and very prominent business man of Scottsville, Virginla, where Mr. and Mrs. Beale will reside, being at home to friends after September 12th.

WHAT IS MEANT BY BARREL OF MONKEYS

Explanation of the Famous

When Mr. Frank Anthony was asked last night what he meant when he said there would be as much fun "as a barrel of monkeys" on the Elks' moonlight Thursday night, he attempted to explain: "You see," he said, "a single monkey is very funny; so a barrel of monkeys must be funnier, and the quantity of fun depends upon the size of the barrel." When asked to further explain, he said that he was only speaking "paragonically," which meant that Tom Hicks, the local Al. Fields, would sing a parody on "The Good Old Summertime," in which local celebrities would join, and that Harry Glenn, the local Lew Dockstandder, would sing a song on "How to Make a High Ball." Then Lee Peters will dance a hornpipe, and Archie Burks will appear in monologue.

These things will tend to make the time pass plensantly, and it is said that if the real Miss Luna does not show that night there is another moon made by Frahk Harms and John Epps, that will be placed fore and aft of the good ship, so that no matter what happens to the heavens, a moon will shine. The boat leaves promptly at 7:30.
